

Guidelines on the management of student disclosure of criminal convictions in the context of volunteering and placement learning

Introduction
Those students taking up a position or placement as part of their programme, or unconnected to their programme but coordinated by the University as a volunteering opportunity

Students¹, should be routinely required to complete a Disclosure and Barring Check if that position is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act². Broadly, such exempt positions are:

-

Decisions based on ongoing investigations